LOS ANGELES, Calif. - Outpost for Contemporary Art is very pleased to host Canadian artist Lucy Pullen as the organization's first artist-in-residence. The anticipated outcome of her residency will be to establish a meaningful connection between three artistic communities along the west coast of North America, Victoria, Los Angeles, and Tijuana.

Ms. Pullen will live and work in the Los Angeles neighborhood of Highland Park where she will occupy a large studio space in the same building where Outpost has its office.
