

VEACESLAV DRUTA

Resident Artist,
April 28–June 1, 2008

Veaceslav Druta creates interactive situations using video, performance, music, and sculpture. He views his works as objects and situations that allow him to establish interaction with people. Now based in Paris, Veaceslav Druta is from Chisinau, Republic of Moldova.

Veaceslav Druta will develop new work during his five week residency in Los Angeles. His ideas, impressions, and work-in-progress will be shared during two public programs.

PUBLIC CONVERSATION BETWEEN GLENN PHILLIPS AND VEACESLAV DRUTA

Sunday, May 18, 2008, 3pm

After the conversation, Druta's studio will informally open to the public.

EVENING #3 OF JULIE LEQUIN'S PERFORMANCE SERIES, My Footnote to David Askevold

Saturday, May 24, 2008, 8–9:30pm

An exhibition of newly completed work will be hosted by OPEN GALLERY, a new private gallery adjacent to Outpost for Contemporary Art.

VEACESLAV DRUTA

May 31–June 28, 2008

Exhibition opens, Saturday, May 31, 7–9pm

Gallery hours: Fri and Sat; 11–6pm

OPEN GALLERY

6375-B N. Figueroa Street

Los Angeles, CA 90042

opengalleryla@gmail.com

OUTPOST FOR CONTEMPORARY ART

6375 North Figueroa Street

Los Angeles, CA 90042

(323) 982-9461

www.outpost-art.org

info@outpost-art.org

Outpost's programs are made possible through the generous support of The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Harpo Foundation, Peter Norton Family Foundation, Trust for Mutual Understanding, Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors through the Los Angeles County Arts Commission, and a growing membership base of supporters from Los Angeles and beyond. Thank you!